Mass Intentions

St Jude: Saturday: In Memory of Bobby and Shirley Clayton requested by Cheryl Gremillion

St Elizabeth: Sunday:

St Jude: Sunday: In Celebration of Timothy Fitzgerald's Birthday requested by the Fitzgerald Family

Our readings today show us that living a stewardship way of life, that is, a life focused on serving God and His Kingdom, is not easy. They also show us that our lives belong to God, not to us and that God will indeed bring about the fulfillment of His kingdom. We just need to have faith that He can do it and commit to our small part in His grand design. This is both our privilege and responsibility as Christian stewards.

Jesus makes this privilege and responsibility clear in today's Gospel passage from Luke. When the apostles ask the Lord to increase their faith, He tells them that even a mustard seed-sized faith is all that is needed to move mountains (because it is God who does the heavy lifting). We need only take the tiniest step forward, and He will do the rest.

But living our lives in His service is also very much our responsibility, as Jesus explains through the parable of the unprofitable servant later in this passage. Our Lord describes a scene in which a servant has just come in from tending to the master's affairs and asks whether it would be reasonable for the master to begin waiting on his servant. Of course, it would not be reasonable! The servant would be expected to continue to serve his master until he has completed the work the master has given him that day. Jesus says we should have this same attitude before God.

The time, talents, and treasure entrusted to us are all God's. Our very lives belong to Him. Whatever we do on God's behalf with our lives and our gifts is simply our God-given responsibility.

The stewardship way of life makes the privilege and responsibility of serving Christ and His kingdom a reality.

PARISH NEWS MINISTRIES AND ORGANIZATIONS

Religious Education

As our Religious Education Program continues to grow, we are using more classrooms. Please do not store items in the CCD classrooms. We are currently cleaning out the rooms, & we want to decorate the rooms with a more positive teaching environment, i.e. keeping our classrooms free from clutter. Please kindly remove any items that have been stored in the CCD classrooms. Please visit the St. Jude's Religious Store which is displayed in the Hall. Items are for purchase. Thank you!

Thank you to the Joseph Family, Deethi, Sreelatha, and Shylaja, Ms. Gwen, and all of the ladies who helped at our Indian Cuisine Grab-n-Go! It was a great success and enjoyed by all!

St. Jude Ladies Society

All ladies are invited to our meeting on Tuesday October 4th in the parish hall. We will begin at 5:30 with our social hour. Business hour will start at 6:00. Our cookbooks should be ready in time for the meeting.
