Mass Intentions

St Jude: Saturday: In Memory of Dora and Dario Villar-Vazquez requested by Alvarez Family

St Elizabeth: Sunday:

St Jude: Sunday: In Memory Rolia Terrance requested by Deacon Mac and Gwen Smith

It is easy to view each other with suspicion or at least a certain guardedness in the modern world. Of course, it's wise to be prudent in our dealings with people. But stewardship calls us to a different outlook towards others. It calls us to approach everyone with an open heart — not through a lens of suspicion, but through the lens of loving hospitality.

This is the attitude of our heavenly Father when He looks upon creation, as we see in our first reading from the Book of Wisdom: "For you love all things that are and loathe nothing that you have made; for you would not fashion what you hate." God's imperishable spirit is in every person because every person is made in God's own image and likeness.

Far deeper than good manners or a superficial exchange of pleasantries, the virtue of hospitality is the outward expression of this way of seeing people as God sees them.

Our Gospel reading from Luke tells the story of how Jesus models this transforming hospitality in His encounter with the tax collector, Zaccheus. He was not content exchanging a friendly hello with Zaccheus, so Jesus sought him out of the crowd and insisted on having dinner in his home. This gesture of intimacy and true fellowship was commonplace in that day and culture. Jesus saw the goodness within the man. Our Lord's open and welcoming attitude (His hospitality) called forth this goodness, and as a result, Zaccheus transformed.

If we are willing to practice Christian hospitality in our daily lives, our families, workplaces, and parish also can be transformed.

2022 DICTIONARY PROJECT

We are starting to give our dictionaries to the third graders in Escambia County. Thanks to everyone who donated and who bought spaghetti dinners to help fund this great project. We NEED HELP in getting these delivered into the schools. This only takes a little time and is greatly rewarding and appreciated. The following is a schedule of times when help is needed. Please call the parish office at (850) 968-6189 or Judy Boehm at (252)207-6771 (or let Mark O'Hara or Judy Boehm know at Mass) to schedule the time and get information on how to help. We take the books into the school as a group and give them out. At present we only have a couple people to do this.

PLEASE CONSIDER HELPING.

Cooper's flag football team from St Paul's Catholic School won their championship this past Saturday. Cooper scored his first touchdown! They played undefeated for the season and won the final game in the last few seconds. Their coach spoke to them all season about winning with humility and losing with grace. When they won their first concern was to congratulate the other team on a good game (even before they realized they had a huge trophy to hoist)!!! CONGRATULATIONS

COOPER TO YOU AND ALL YOUR TEAMMATES AND COACH.

Please join us for First Friday Rosary at St. Elizabeth's November 4th at 7:00 pm. If you don't have a Rosary, we have extras. If you don't know how to say a Rosary this the best place to learn. November is the month of the Holy Souls.
