Mass Intentions

St Jude: Saturday: In Memory of Tyrone Smith and Linda Daigre requested by Deacon Mac and Gwen Smith

St Elizabeth: Sunday:

St Jude: Sunday: For the intentions of the Parishioners requested by Juanita Suarez

On today's feast in honor of Mary, the Mother of God, we celebrate the spiritual truth that it's through Mary that Jesus received human life, and it's through her intercession that you and I have spiritual life. Mary, in all things, leads us to her Son. So when we turn to Mary, she says those words that she spoke at the wedding of Cana: "Do whatever He tells you."

Mary is for us not only an intercessor, but a model as well. She is a model disciple, which means that she herself did whatever Jesus told her. But that right action on her part was only possible because she always first listened to Jesus. This is true in the spiritual life of each of us striving to be a faithful disciple: doing follows hearing. Both our doing and our hearing have to be in accord with the Lord's will, but in the right order: hearing first, and doing second.

The Mother of God is our Mother, also. We are her children, and if we follow her example over the next fifty-two weeks, she will lead us in all things to Jesus. Reflect on all these things in your heart throughout this new year: "all these things" being the Gospel, the Good News that God has proclaimed on this earth in order to transform the meaning of every event, relationship, and action in your life.

My dear friends,

I hope you had a blessed Christmas. I take this opportunity to thank you all for what you ARE to me. Thank you for your prayers and support. Special thanks for the gifts and goodies you shared with me during this Christmas.

As we are welcoming the year 2023, my prayer for you is, "May the Lord bless you and keep you! The Lord let his face shine upon you and be gracious to you! The Lord look upon you kindly and give you peace!"

In Christ, Fr George
