Dear Parents,

As we begin another year of religious education, I want to take a moment to reflect on the importance of this endeavor and the profound impact it can have on the lives of our children.

In a world that is constantly changing and evolving, the need for a solid foundation in faith is more crucial than ever. Religious education provides our children with tools to understand and embrace the teaching of our faith and help them to navigate the challenges they will inevitably face.

Here are a few reasons why religious education matters:

- 1) spiritual nourishment: just as we nourish our bodies with food, we need to nourish our souls with spiritual wisdom.
- 2) moral compass: in a world where values can sometimes seem blurred, religious education provides a moral compass based on the timeless principles of love, compassion, and justice.
- 3) community and belonging: our faith is a journey that we undertake together.
- 4) guidance for life: the teachings of our faith offer guidance for making ethical decisions, building strong relationships, and living a meaningful life.
- 5) preparation for the future: our children are the future leaders, parents, priests, and citizens of the world. Religious education equips them with the wisdom and values they need to contribute positively to society.

Let us work together to create an environment where our children can explore their faith, ask questions, and deepen their understanding. Your partnership with our religious education program is invaluable, and together, we can nurture a generation that is grounded in faith and committed to making our world a better place.

May God bless you,
Fr George
