How easy it is, especially in these times, to be consumed by the cares and distractions of the "here and now," forgetting about what matters most — living for the Kingdom of Heaven. The stewardship way of life, with its emphasis on the virtuous use of our Time, Talent, and Treasure, allows us to embrace daily life and all its demands — with eternity in mind.

How do we keep focused on the Kingdom of Heaven? St. Paul shares his secret for an eternity-driven life. In our Second Reading from his Letter to the Philippians, Paul says, "I know how to live in humble circumstances; I know also how to live with abundance. In every circumstance and in all things I have learned the secret of being well fed and going hungry, of living in abundance and of being in need." In other words, Paul has learned to live the stewardship way of life.

What is the secret? It is this: "I can do all things in him who strengthens me." How? Through this: "My God will fully supply whatever you need, in accord with his glorious riches in Christ Jesus." It is so simple! But it is not easy. It takes both courage and humility to live this way. God will supply these to us if we ask.

Together, Sharing our Faith, Building our Vision

Thank you to all who helped with the Octoberfest! Everyone had a great time!

St. Jude, Pray for us

October 28th is the Feast Day of one of our Patron Saints, St. Jude Thaddeus. St. Jude is the patron saint of hopeless causes and desperate situations. If there is a situation or person in your life in need of prayer, a novena (9 day prayer) is included below. So that the novena would conclude on the Feast Day of St. Jude, begin the novena on October 19th.

St. Jude Novena

“Most holy St. Jude—apostle, martyr, and friend of Jesus, today I ask that you pray for me and the intentions I now share...(Name your intentions)

St. Jude, you are the patron of the impossible. Pray for me and my intentions! O St. Jude, pray that God’s grace and mercy will cover my intentions. Pray for the impossible if it is God’s will. Pray that I may have the grace to accept God’s holy will even if it is painful and difficult for me. Amen.”
