As we reflect on our Gospel, we recognize that God possesses all authority and that we want to give Him all authority. Jesus was teaching in the synagogue on the Sabbath. All were fixed on His words and astonished at what He had to say. Suddenly everyone's attention shifted to a man with an unclean spirit who began to question Jesus and His authority. Jesus responded, "Quiet, come out of him!" and removed the evil spirit from the man. All were amazed at the healing of this man.

Life can sometimes look like the synagogue in Capernaum. We are living as disciples of Christ when we suddenly recognize evil around us — through events in our lives, temptations we are enduring, or by falling into sin. It can distract us, consume our attention, or even cause us to despair. In these moments of trial, we must remember the Healer in our Gospel today. Recall His words, "Quiet, come out of Him!" Jesus has the power and authority over evil, for He has conquered sin and death. He also has the power and authority over us. And when we invite Him to have that authority, He will heal us and help us persevere.

Today, we are reminded that God is in control and that we want Him to be in control. He is the loving Healer Who will work miracles in our lives if we give Him the authority to do so.

St. Jude & St. Elizabeth New Community Center Project

Another fun night at the Concession Stand!

JANUARY: MONTH OF THE FAMILY

On this last Sunday of January, we will have a blessing for families. Let us remember to give thanks for the gift of family.

Thank you to our children, parents and teachers for another beautiful Children's Mass last Sunday! The altar servers, the greeters, the ushers, and the readers all did an outstanding job!

The Bulletin Board

1. St. Jude Altar Flowers this week are provided by Vangie & Tom Waheed in Celebration of Family Members celebrating birthdays in February.
2. All parishioners who have made a Capital Campaign pledge will be mailed a statement of their total giving toward their pledge by the end of January.
4. If you would like a statement of your 2023 offertory contributions, please call or email the parish office.
5. The Religious Ed department is collecting any Christmas cards you may be discarding! They can be dropped off in the box at the back of the church.
6. There will be a Grief Share Seminar Series at Nativity of Our Lord Catholic Church on February 1st from 6-8 pm. Register by contacting Jim Guttman at 850-860-8354
7. The second collection next weekend is for the Contingency Fund.
