House Blessing

Blessing of Homes

Of all the possible blessings—for a workplace, a store, a vehicle—the one for under the roof and between the walls of a home reflects something particularly profound. “This practice has its roots in the liturgy of the people of Israel. It evokes the blood of the Passover lamb that the Hebrews painted around their doors before the flight to Egypt,” explains Fr. Emmanuel Roberge. “During the first centuries, the time of persecution, the faith was practiced within the home, in the domus ecclesiae, the ‘house church’. The first Christian liturgies were celebrated in homes.” —<https://aleteia.org/cp1/2020/09/18/why-its-important-to-bless-your-new-home/>

Homes are blessed for two reasons: It purifies the house and makes it a holy dwelling. It also sanctifies the home, it calls upon God’s grace and mercy to sanctify the activity within the home that this may be a place of nourishment, love and support as we grow closer to God.

If you are interested in having your house blessed, Father George would be happy to do a blessing at your home. Please call him at 850-291-1891 to schedule a day and time.

PARISH NEWS MINISTRIES AND ORGANIZATIONS

APRIL: SENIOR APPRECIATION MONTH

Every age has its blessings, and our "senior age" is no exception. What are the blessings of aging? They are many! Here are a few: a broader vision of what's important and what's not; inner peace; trust in God's plan; ability to laugh at oneself (and more opportunities to do so!); greater treasuring of the beauty of creation, of people in every stage of life (especially the children), and of every moment of life that God gives us. Saint John Paul II points out that while our bodies age, the human spirit can remain ever young if it is constantly turned toward eternity. He speaks of an "enduring youthfulness" until we cross into the beyond, "where there is neither youth nor old age, but where all are perfect in spiritual maturity."—<https://mycatholic.life/books/thoughts-on-aging/january-thoughts-on-aging/#:~:text=Saint%20John%20Paul%20II%20points,are%20perfect%20in%20spiritual%20maturity.%E2%80%9D>

Let us pray today and always for all seniors, that they may find renewed strength each day, that they may be blessed with good health and that they may be inspired to be a good example to others.
