“DID YOU KNOW”

Bishop Wack has approved the Hopeful Mysteries of the rosary. These mysteries were developed with much prayer by our Diocese. The Hopeful Mysteries are five events in salvation history that include the Creation, the Great Flood, Abraham's Sacrifice, the Passover and the Immaculate Conception.

The Hopeful Mysteries enrich the four other sets of mysteries of the Most Holy Rosary by inviting us to reflect on key moments in the history of salvation prior to the Annunciation. Each mystery shows God's people beginning to hope for salvation in God alone, and helps us see how Providence prepares the way for the coming Messiah, Jesus Christ, who is God with us.

The other four sets of mysteries are traditionally tied to specific days: Joyful-Monday & Saturday, Sorrowful—Tuesday and Friday, Glorious—Wednesday & Sunday and Luminous on Thursday. The Hopeful Mysteries are not associated with a specific day of the week, but rather may occasionally be prayed in place of another set or can be offered up as an additional set of mysteries on any given day.
