OCIA

(Order of Christian Initiation of Adults & Christian Initiation for Children

The Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee is preparing to restore the proper order of sacraments of Initiation for Catholics baptized before the "age of discretion." "In his second pastoral letter: 'Reborn, Anointed, Nourished: Faith and Formation of Life', Bishop Wack states that the age of Confirmation for Catholic children will be moved from ninth or tenth grade to what is called in church law "the age of discretion", around seven years of age. The letter goes on to state that "as a diocese we will be restoring for our Catholic children the original order for the reception of the three great sacraments of initiation: Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist."

This will involve much deeper catechesis within the family, as well as continued catechesis that the parish provides. This change will occur over the next few years and more information will be shared along the way. To learn more about this change and why it is occurring, please visit

<https://ptdiocese.org/restoredorderpastoralletter> where you can read Bishop Wack's second pastoral letter.
