No Bake Bake -Sale is Back!

If you're not sure how a "No Bake - Bake Sale" works; Instead of baking (or buying) treats for a bake sale, we're asking for donations equal to the amount you'd typically spend on baked goods. If you bought a cake, cookies or other goodies from Sam's Club, Wal-Mart etc.... consider donating that amount to support our cause. For this No bake – Bake Sale every dollar goes directly to support costs incurred by the family of John Clark.

Thank you for your generosity and support – let's make this the best bake-free bake sale ever!

The Knights of Columbus will have a table setup after Mass on the 16th and 17th of August 2025

Knights Corner

The Knights of Columbus is an international organization with Councils in 17 countries. The group aims to support Catholic traditions, assist parishes, and participate in charitable activities within communities. At St. Jude/St. Elizabeth, members are involved in several parish initiatives, such as rebuilding the deck on St. Jude Hall, organizing fellowship gatherings after Sunday Mass, and providing Thanksgiving meals for seniors. The organization supports Right to Life efforts and contributes to other Catholic charities. Men interested in learning more or participating can approach a member at mass, typically identified by a navy-blue Knights shirt, who can provide further information.
