On this Catechetical Sunday, we would like to recognize and thank our CCD and OCIA

Teachers : Joe Nunes, Gary Beadle, Jay

Gallacher, Shawn Engel, Deacon Jonathan, Ric Knight, Scott and Rachel Bradley, Jeanine Garvey, MonaLisa Bell, Carol Larson and Deborah Gardener.

And our Director of Religious Education: Rachel Bradley.

These individuals give of their time each week to one of the most important ministries of the Church: educating and forming our children and those seeking entrance to the Catholic Faith.

Thank you for all that you do!

If you have borrowed a pyx to bring communion to someone in need, please remember to return it to the sacristy when you are done. We currently have a low supply. Thank you!

The Helping Hands program is designed to recognize the important work many councils already do to care for the most disadvantaged members of our communities, the helpless, the elderly, and families who may feel isolated and abandoned. The program's broad requirements enable councils to address their communities' specific needs. Our council wishes to help those in our community. If you need help or see a need, please let us know. Our hands-on approach can assist in many ways!—Shawn Engel, Grand Knight
