All Saints Day & All Souls Day

All Saints Day, usually a Holy Day of Obligation, has been abrogated this year by the USCCB (is not obligatory this year). However, the 9:30 am First Saturday Mass at St. Jude on November 1st will be for All Saints Day. All Souls Day, November 2nd, is on Sunday and all 3 masses (4pm at St. Jude, 8:30 am at St. Elizabeth and 10:30 am at St. Jude) will be for the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed and fulfills the Sunday obligation.

November 1st Vigil & November 2nd: All Souls Day Mass

Next weekend will be the last weekend to write the names of your loved ones who have passed away this year and place in the brown envelope. Those names will be read at all 3 masses during All Souls Day weekend.

Starting this weekend we will have a Memorial Book in which names of all deceased loved ones may be written. It will be placed on the altar for each mass in November.

1. St. Jude Altar Flowers this week are provided by Jerry & Melba Burroughs in Memory of Beulah and Hillery White.
2. The Second Collection this weekend is for World Mission Sunday.

Light on top of the Hill – Updates & Tidbits

The St. Jude Novena is traditionally prayed from October 19th through October 27th, in preparation for his feast day on October 28th.

We pray the St. Jude Novena to lead us in prayer for hope and strength during difficult times in our lives and in the lives of others.

St. Jude sought to love the Lord through challenging times, so we strive to imitate this same unwavering faith.

How to pray the St. Jude Novena:

1. Make the Sign of the Cross
 2. Pray the Our Father
 3. Invoke St. Jude's Intercession: St. Jude, faithful servant, friend of Jesus, patron saint of lost causes and of hope, pray for me (say your intentions)
 4. Pray the St. Jude Novena Prayer
 5. Say one decade of the rosary
 6. Make the Sign of the Cross
- Repeat each day October 19-October 27.

St. Jude Novena Prayer

"St. Jude, you are the patron of the impossible. Pray for me and my intentions! O St. Jude, pray that God's grace and mercy will cover my intentions. Pray for the impossible if it is God's will. Pray that I may have the grace to accept God's holy will even if it is painful and difficult for me."
